

WELCOME TO THE
FAR EAST
WITH TRAVELPACK

Why choose Travelpack?

For the past 26 years Travelpack has been providing quality holidays, we pride ourselves on the professional and personalised service we offer, both in the UK and overseas. In each overseas destination we have specially appointed agents acting on our behalf and our 24-hour Destination Management Teams are on hand to ensure you get the most out of your holiday and that all runs smoothly. In the UK we have well trained and travelled staff keen to answer any questions you may have and to share their knowledge and experience with you, whilst making sure your holiday is tailored specifically to meet your requirements.

This year, why not try something a little different ... allow Travelpack to help you discover one of the most fascinating and colourful regions of the world. With our new 2009 Far East brochure our aim is to highlight some of these wonderful places to you, and have carefully selected a number of destinations, cities, resorts, hotels, tours, rail-journeys and cruises that will show you the highlights of the Far East. Whether you are a first time visitor, visiting friends or family or are a seasoned traveller to the region, we are sure we will have something that will take your fancy.....

The Far East offers such a diverse array of choices and combinations that we are sure there will be something to suit everyone. Whether it's the vibrant city life you long for, offering great sightseeing, shopping, dining and nightlife, the more relaxed pace of a beautiful beach destination, or the culture and history of some of Asia's ancient hidden treasures, or possibly a combination of all three, look no further!
