

WHERE TO GO

Phnom Penh is located towards the south of Cambodia and is the capital city. It sits at the confluence of the Mekong, the Bassac and the Tonle Sap rivers and was once considered the loveliest of the French built cities of Indochina. Its charm has now diminished and travelers tend to spend only the one night, although the city does offer some good nightlife, restaurants and a few sightseeing opportunities.

Siem Reap is situated in the northern area, just north of the Tonle Sap Lake. It is the gateway to the temples of Angkor, Cambodia's spiritual and cultural heartbeat. Siem Reap has tree lined boulevards, French shop houses and a number of restaurants and bars.

ESSENTIAL EXPERIENCES

TEMPLES OF ANGKOR A visit to Cambodia would not be complete without visiting the stunning Angkor temples. Apart from the celebrated Angkor Wat, two other magnificent temples to visit are the Bayon, with its more than 200 enormous mysterious faces, and Ta Prohm, left largely in its natural state and engulfed in the jungle. If you are short of time we can arrange a full day tour from Siem Reap from £42 per person. However, we would recommend that you spend at least 1 night in Siem Reap giving you time to experience the beauty of these temples.

EVENING CULTURAL DANCE SHOW A buffet BBQ with a selection of Asian cuisine makes this a memorable night combined with a live performance of traditional Cambodian dance and music in the grounds of the hotel. Price £15 per person.

TON LE SAP LAKE FLOATING VILLAGE Firstly drive to Ton Le Sap Lake, the largest freshwater lake in South East Asia and the lifeblood of the Cambodian fishing industry. Board your boat and cruise around fish farms and the floating villages complete with schools, restaurants and hospitals. Half-day tour costs £16 per person.
