Pumba Private Game Reserve | Near Port Elizabeth

Situated between Port Elizabeth and Grahamstown and set against the backdrop of the beautiful Eastern Cape's landscape, Pumba Private Game Reserve covers 6,000 hectares. 105km from Port Elizabeth.

Facilities

Home to Africa's 'Big Five', as well as a pride of white lions, the reserve offers visitors the chance to experience Africa's incredible wildlife in their natural environment with over 300 species of birds. Guests can enjoy game drives in luxury game viewing vehicles, with individual 'bucket-seats' for maximum comfort. Pumba boasts two luxurious lodges, each within its own unique setting. 12 Stone-walled, thatched chalets at Pumba Water Lodge overlook Lake Kariega, whilst Msenge Bush Lodge offers 11 thatched, glass enclosed chalets, overlooking the floodplains. As the sun sets on the plains or lake below the lodge, guests can simply relax in the library or watch the wildlife spectacle that unfolds from the comfort of the lodges' expansive wooden decks.

Accommodation

All of the spacious chalets open onto private timber decks with plunge pools and fire-places for the cooler evenings. Each is en-suite with free-standing bathtubs, double vanities and outdoor showers. Each chalet is equipped with every modern comfort, from air-conditioning, tea/coffee making facilities, personal safe, mini bar and tea/coffee making facilities.
