

Kenya is without doubt, a stunningly beautiful country. From the bleached sands of the eastern coast lapped by the aquamarine waters of the Indian Ocean to the ancient ways of life and traditional cultures. With its natural surroundings and vast lands filled with wildlife making safaris, you will be touched by what you see here.

Kenya, Tanzania and the rest of East Africa welcome you with open arms and proudly share their natural splendour and wild inhabitants. Whether you visit Amboseli or Serengeti National Park or Ngorongoro or Lake Nakura, you will be amazed at how special your safari will be. The renowned Masai Mara Game Reserve awaits you on your visit.

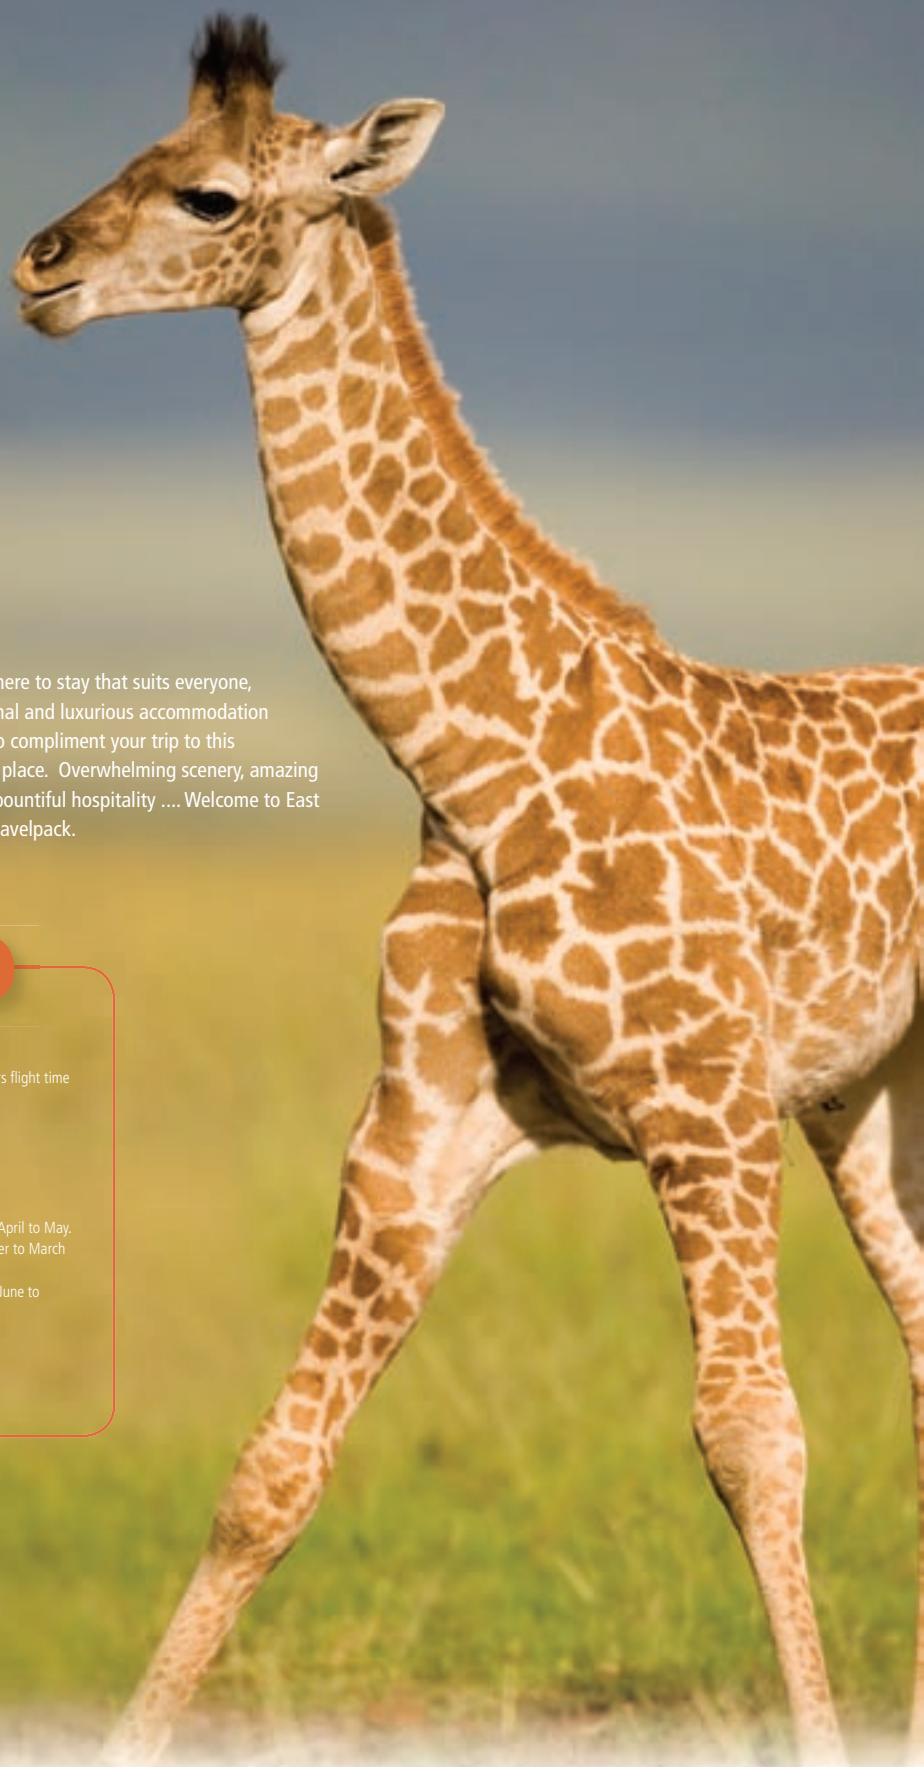

Tanzania is famous for being one of the best wildlife destinations in the world, yet it has much else to offer. Bounded on the east by the lovely shores of the Indian Ocean where sapphire seas and coral sands provide idyllic beaches, the western boundary is Lake Tanganyika, Africa's longest and deepest lake. Don't forget Zanzibar the idyllic beach destination that complements any safari holiday.

Welcome the introduction of Malindi to the Travelpack East Africa program. Malindi is a seaside town on Malindi Bay at the mouth of the Galana River, lying on the Indian Ocean coast of Kenya. It lies northeast of Mombasa. Malindi conjures up visions of a great historic town that has journeyed through ages bringing with it some of the most delicious culinary delights imaginable.

With somewhere to stay that suits everyone, both traditional and luxurious accommodation is available to complement your trip to this breathtaking place. Overwhelming scenery, amazing wildlife and bountiful hospitality Welcome to East Africa with Travelpack.
